

Victim Service Center Donor Privacy

Policy: The Victim Service Center is committed to protecting the privacy of all supporters of VSC and will protect the information of its donors to the best of their ability. This is inclusive of financial and in-kind donors. The VSC will not sell, trade, or share the names or personal information of donors with any other organization or solicit them on behalf of another organization. This adheres to all information gathered through VSC's website, pledge cards, or event registration or through any forms of communication including electronic, written, or oral. VSC will also take all steps possible to safeguard the identity of donors who wish to remain anonymous.
